

WELCOME TO BANGKOK HOUSE, named for the capital city of Thailand. Located in South East Asia, the Kingdom of Thailand is a paradise of tropical beaches, magnificent golden temples, and bustling city streets. Rich with beauty, culture, and excitement, it has earned the nickname, The Land of a Thousand Smiles.

And of course, there is the food. Thailand has become famous for its enticing cuisine, which uses fresh, exotic herbs, spices, and ingredients, combined with influences from Myanmar, Laos, China, and Malaysia, for a unique culinary character. From creamy desserts and coconut curries, to fiery hot stir-fries and chili sauces, the flavors of Thailand strike an unforgettable balance of sweet, sour, savory, and spicy.

Our Executive Chef, Suchart Tiawskul, has over 40 years of worldwide experience as a master in the art of Thai cuisine. He holds certificates from the Thai Management Association and the Hilton International Bangkok, where he was awarded with merit for his dedicated service. Mr. Tiawskul also won the 1988 Silver Medal in the Culinary Arts Exhibition in Thailand, a prestigious competition for which his team from the Hilton was named the Overall Winners. Furthermore, he was honored by the Executive Chefs Association of Thailand for his representation in the Olympiad of Cooks in Germany. Mr. Tiawskul's exquisite creations have impressed his guests at various international establishments and restaurants, from Japan to the Ukraine, and most recently at a well established Thai restaurant in Red Bank. We are proud to serve and delight you with his renowned culinary talents here at Bangkok House.
